BAPTISTS TO OPEN THE NEW CHURCH SUNDAY

Building now Completed and is Almost Free of Debt—
Special Service Sunday Morning and Evening.

Next Sunday will be a red letter day in the history of the Baptist congregation of this town. On that day the members of the congregation will have the privilege of enjoying the fruits of their labors by celebrating the opening of their new church which is now completed and ready to occupy.

The new church is situated on Fourth street. It is constructed of frame and is 36 by 40 feet, with a seating capacity of approximately 250 persons.

Ever since it was decided to build this church these in charge had the hearty co-operation of all the members interested and for this reason the work has gone on harmoniously and has been brought to this successful stage so quickly. While all have done their part, special mention might well be made of the pastor, Rev. F. T. White, who has, on several occasions taken his place with the workmen, in order to keep things moving, and also to J. C. Caldwell, who has been superintending the work. The financing of the building operations has also been well looked after, so much so that although there is still a small amount owing it is hoped that by the time the opening exercises are over the church will be free from all debt. This is indeed a very creditable showing and the Review joins with the other denominations in wishing the new church every success.

Opening services will be held in the new church next Sunday morning and evening, and there will be social evening held the following evening.

The supreme court of Canada has quashed the appeal of the attorney-general of Canada in the Hudson's Bay case. This means the latter company may continue its liquor business in that province as allowed by act of parliament years ago.

PUBLIC MEETING

Owing to the fact that the leaders of both political parties in this constituency met in convention and decided to join their forces in support of a union government supporter and these as their candidate the Hon. A. J. Sifton, and owing to the probability of a contest in this constituency in the forthcoming Dominion election, we have been asked by officials of the two old party associations in this town to call a joint meeting of all supporters of the present union government, for the purpose of organizing for the approaching contest. It has been decided, therefore, that a meeting for this purpose be held in Croves hall, on Friday night, Nov. 16th, at eight o'clock, when all voters—both ladies and gentlemen—who are supporters of the present union government, are urgently requested to attend.

In 1914 the government gave you the help you required and charged 1 per cent interest. Now the government asks you for help and offers you 5 per cent interest. Return the favor to Canada as security. Return the favor to a good fellow and buy a Victory bond.

LIEUT. FREMONT F. WOODCOCK,

Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodcock, of this town, who is reported killed in action on Nov. 3rd.

F.F. WOODCOCK IS REPORTED AMONG KILLED

Was Only Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodcock of This Town — Had Lived
Here Since Town Started

A telegram from the Militia Department brought the sad news to Redcliff on Tuesday that Lieut. Fremont F. Woodcock was killed in action on Nov. 3rd.

There was probably no boy left Redcliff for the front who was better known than "Monty" Woodcock, and as a result the news has cast a gloom over the whole town.

Lieut. Woodcock, although an American citizen, with no compulsory call upon him to enlist, was among the first to volunteer his services from this town. He joined the 56th as a private but mechanical ability well fitted him for machine gun work and it was not long till he was transferred to the machine gun section as a sergeant. So proficient was he that it was not long till he was made a lieutenant and he left for overseas with that rank. He was among the first of his battalion to go to the front but in one of his first engagements he was badly gassed and compelled to retire to a hospital for a time. When he had sufficiently recovered he was sent to the base as an instructor and only a few weeks ago was again ordered to the front with the above rank.

Lieut. Woodcock was one of the very first young men to come to Redcliff after the town was started, having come here with his father, who was then manager of the Brick & Coal plant, and "Monty" was superintendent in one of the departments. He afterwards became manager of the Clay Products plant, and later opened the first garage in Redcliff. Deceased was a young man of robust constitution, and was what might be called a fine example of youthfulness of which his parents and friends might feel justly proud. He was born in Princeton, Minnesota, and came over here and since coming to Redcliff was married to Miss Grace Weaver, who was also residing here at the time. To them was born one son, who with his adored mother are now living in New York. To his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodcock, of this town, who are now well on in years, the news of the loss of their only son has been a terrible blow. Miss Annie Woodcock and Mrs. R. S. Hodge are slaves of deceased. To the bereaved ones the sincerest sympathy of their many friends goes in this their hour of sore affliction.

Innumerator For Redcliff Appointed

R. S. Hodge has been appointed innumerator for this district. His duty will be to compile the voters list which will be used for the forthcoming Dominion election. Those who are eligible to vote will have to register and they should keep themselves posted on when and where to have the matter attended to. It should also be remembered that wives, daughters and sisters of soldiers are to be allowed to vote in this election. Watch for further particulars later.

As the voters' list thus being compiled is the one that will be used in the next Dominion election it is absolutely necessary that all qualified voters should have their names on this list. The qualifications are: Male British subjects of the full age of 21 years who have been one year in this province and three months in this constituency. Except as to sex the same qualifications apply to relatives of soldiers. In this case female relatives may register and vote as above described.

Mr. Hodge will be at the Review office every day from now till Dec. 3rd to take applications for registration. Attend to yours as soon as possible.

L. O. L. Grand Master Visits Local Lodge

The local L. O. L. lodge No. 2315, held a very successful meeting in their lodge room here last Thursday evening, Nov. 8th, when the worshipful master, James Jardine, was in the chair.

The lodge was honored with a visit from the Right Worshipful Grand Master, Rev. M. L. Wright, of Wetaskiwin, and after the routine business of the meeting was transacted the right worshipful master gave an address which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by all present. The grand auditor, Bro. J. Rollitt, of Bow Island, and the grand lecturer, Bro. K. Ledrow, of Medicine Hat, were also present and gave interesting and instructive addresses.

During the evening four members were advanced to the degree of Royal Arch Purple Marksmen, after which a most enjoyable social evening was spent.

The adopted daughter of Mr. J. Enns, Fischer Creek, was more than double what it was in the same period of last year, and more than treble that in the first ten months of 1915.

COUNCIL WILL NOT ENGAGE ENGINEER NOW

Appoint Working Foreman
To Take Charge of Work—Grant Made to the New Town Citizens' Band

The regular meeting of the town council was held last Monday evening. Mayor Bott occupied the chair and the entire council was present.

Mayor Bott said that the council would on the council and asked if there was any bylaw prohibiting the peddling of meat and other commodities without a license. As spokesman Mr. Worts said he thought those who had been in permanent business and had been to considerable expense during the summer months to keep meat in good condition for sale should have some protection. The mayor expressed himself as in sympathy with the complaint registered and assured the delegation that he thought the council would under the town act all they could to protect permanent business men. Councillor Lavelle said that the mayor required careful investigation and would therefore move that it be referred to the license committee. Councillor McLean seconded and the motion carried.

The finance committee, to whom was referred the request for an increase of salary by Mr. Anderson as assistant engineer, reported that Mr. Anderson had since resigned and the matter was dropped.

The secretary then read a letter from J. E. Alkwith in which he tendered his resignation as town engineer. A letter from Mayor Bott formally accepting the resignation was also read to the council. The mayor then explained the circumstances which led up to the resignation, the substance of which was a discussion between him and the engineer as to why the town wasn't properly supplied with water after a year's negotiations. Since the resignation was accepted the mayor and the water committee had instructed Mr. Kitchen to take charge of the working town staff, as a working foreman at a fixed salary of $100 per month.

On motion of Councillor Broughton and Mr. Kitchen the action of the mayor in accepting the engineer's resignation was endorsed by the council unanimously. It was also agreed that the arrangements made by the water committee regarding the carrying on of the work for the present were satisfactory.

Foreman Kitchen was instructed to have ditch on First street dug at contract price of 40c per foot.

A letter was read from W. G. Hutchinson applying for the position of assistant engineer. On motion of Councillors Lavelle and Oates the application was accepted and Mr. Hutchinson engaged.

As the date for the treasurer's annual meeting falls on Monday, Nov. 20th the secretary was instructed to engage a suitable hall for the meeting.

A letter was read from the Redcliff hand asking for financial assistance to help keep the hand going. After some discussion it was decided to make a grant of $25.00 per month for the balance of the year and that the matter be taken up again at the beginning of the new year.

A letter was read from the executive of the Union of Canadian Municipalities asking the co-operation of the council in encouraging the consumption of fish during the war.

A bylaw, appointing Wm. Henderson returning officer for the annual municipal election was given its several readings and passed. If an election be necessary the bylaw also called for the same to take place on Monday, December 10th, at Croves hall between the hours of 10 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The usual monthly accounts were passed by the finance committee and ordered to be paid.

The necessity of securing a grade into town from the north, as some of the wild sections are now being ploughed, was brought to the attention of the council and the mayor was authorized to endeavor to secure the grade asked for.

What Will Canada's Answer Be?

OVER in the sodden trenches amid the bursting shells and the roar of artillery where Canada's boys are fighting and dying.

—they are waiting for Canada's answer when the sale of Victory Bonds begins.

CANADA'S soldiers expect that we at home will put the millions they need to keep on fighting, —the millions they must have to win Victory for freedom, home and Canada.

What answer will Canada make?
What answer will you make?

Shall it be said that Canada spares not her sons from the sacrifice of battle, yet withholds her dollars to give them victory?

Rather will it be said that Canada once more, for the fourth time in three years, cheerfully puts up her millions upon millions for the cause of freedom, righteousness and justice.

Canada's answer must be,

—that the Canadian hand to the plow of Victory holds steadfast and firm.

—that Canada is in deadly earnest when she says the "last man and the last dollar."

That is the answer Canada will give to our boys in the trenches, our kinsmen in Britain, and our Allies everywhere.

That is the answer we will give to the Huns who thought and said that Canada would desert the Empire before she would fight or pay.

Every bond you buy is an answer. Let the millions of answers from Canada's loyal men and women make a chorus of Victory to ring around the world.

Well Pleased With

Redcliff Showing

The following letter which explains itself has been received by the secretary of the committee appointed to look after the collection in this district for the French Emergency Fund:—

Winning, Man, Nov. 10, 1917.

Dear Sir: I have for acknowledgement your letter of the 7th instant enclosing draft on Winnipeg for $15.50, this representing the subscription received in Redcliff and vicinity towards the French Wounded Emergency Fund. In acknowledging this very handsome donation I am glad to be able to tell you that your town has made an exceptionally good showing, and leads me to the conclusion that your campaign was conducted with a maximum degree of efficiency.

I should esteem it a favor, if you would convey to such of your good townspeople as you are able, the very deep appreciation of our committee for their generous contribution.

Yours truly,
H. B. SHAW.

War Records Officer

Wants Soldiers' Photo

The officer in charge of Canadian War Records has asked us to make known that it is desired to compile a complete history in photograph of the Canadians share the war, in the same way that all other belligerent countries are compiling similar records.

It is particularly desired to obtain photographs of all officers, N. C. O.'s and men who have served or are now serving in the overseas military forces of Canada, and it is requested that an appeal should be made to this end through these columns.

All officers and other ranks serving overseas may find it difficult to send in their photographs and their relatives are therefore especially appealing to, to send in their photographs for them.

By preference the photographs should be unmounted and printed on bromide paper in order to ensure permanence. Each photograph should be accompanied by a printed label not exceeding two or three hundred words, of the subjects, military career, including dates of enlistment, promotion, distinctions and so on, as this will greatly assist in obtaining a full and accurate record of all concerned.

In addition it is desired to collect all photographs dealing with the mobilization, training and departure of troops together with various illustrations, reviews, sports, presentations, etc. Any photograph of this nature is regarded as a document of historical importance, and it is requested that the possessors of all such photographs will send them to send either the originals or copies to the committee. They will be placed in the permanent public archives of the Dominion.

All photographs, which will be acknowledged, should be addressed to the officer in charge of Canadian War Records, 14 Cliford Street, Bond Street, London, W. L. England.

Defaulters Given

One More Chance

The following announcement is made by the Military Service Council:—

"The 10th of November, the date fixed by proclamation for members of Class 1 under the Military Service Act to report for service unless claim for their exemption should be made, is now past. The great majority of the men in the class have satisfied the obligation imposed upon them by the statute, but there are still some of the able number who have disregarded the imperative requirements of the law."

It has, therefore, been decided that those members of Class 1 now in default, who surrender themselves to the military authorities without delay and before civil proceedings have been instituted against them, shall not thereafter be subjected to court-martial proceedings and officers commanding districts have received instructions to deal with such men as leniently as the requirements of discipline may permit.

HIS HOME PAPER

What shall you send him when he is training camp or over there? A letter? By all means, that foremost and foremost. And after that, what? Some foolish little knock-book which is neither quite ornamental nor entirely serviceable? Or, when in doubt, will you take a letter from what Richard Henry Dana wrote in "Two Years Before the Mast"?

"After all, there is nothing in a stranger land like a newspaper from home. Even a letter, in many respects, is nothing in comparison with it. It carries you back to the mother, better than anything else."

There is more in this today than

ATTENTION!

Reports indicate that there is considerable work to do before the Christmas opening day, and only four days left to do it in. You understand, we cannot expect the money to be produced the cash to make up the amount of our guarantee. It is necessary to hustle hard and continuously, and turn all money collected into the Imperial Bank before noon of Wednesday, November 20th.

There will be a meeting of the guarantors, at the Redcliff Review office, at 5.30 p. m., Sunday, the 18th inst. Please be there.

Vegetables Should

Be Properly Stored

We clip the following timely advice from "Conservation," a magazine issued by the Conservation Commission:

"The year, in response to appeals for increased food supplies, Canadians have produced a record crop of vegetables."

"That the greatest use may be made of these products it is essential that care be exercised in their storage and preservation. A cool, dry cellar is the best place to store vegetables. Carrots, parsnips, beets, etc., if covered with sand, will not dry and shrivel up. Cabbages are best taken up and hung by the roots individually."

"It is not safe to market potatoes, which leaves the consumer dependent upon the middleman for supply, especially at an advanced season. By early distribution, the storage problem can be largely solved and much of the waste due to freezing avoided."

How to Avoid

Wasting The Straw

That there is a very great waste of valuable material in the burning of straw no one will deny, but that the straw may be profitably utilized only a comparatively few on the prairie apparently realized, as is evidenced by the red sky on autumn evening due to the large number of burning straw piles.

There are straw burners adopted for the use of straw, and it is true, but those has far put on the market have not been an unqualified success. There is also much being said from time to time of the value of the straw in the manufacture of briquettes for fuel purposes but this has not yet come to the stage of practical consideration. There is the old and time honored use of returning it to the land for the benefit of the soil, which has been proved satisfactory and profitable again and again in experiments carried on at the various Dominion Experimental Stations on the prairie.

In countries of much moisture the straw might be spread on land and trampled under but to plough under any appreciable quantity of straw in this country is as found in the straw would mean the loss of the crop the following season and perhaps of two seasons because there is not sufficient moisture in the soil to rot the straw in one year and the unrotted straw leaves the soil so open that the soil itself dries out more than it otherwise would. The straw must be rotted before it is applied to the land.

The most satisfactory means of rotting the straw quickly is live stock. If cattle and horses are allowed free access to straw piles during the day throughout the winter a few head will rot a pile down in a large pile. In doing so they tramp with it large quantities of snow and their own manure, thus covering double surges of rotting their own waste products for the land and putting the straw into shape to be more easily rotted.

In the spring the edges should be gathered toward the centre. Till the trampled pile is not less than four feet deep and if left in this condition all summer it is in splendid shape in the fall to spread on the land that is to be sown in the following season. The shanking of the pile can be done in the spring before work can be begun on the land and the spreading of the pile can be done in the fall after the land is too much frozen to allow of any cultivation, thus allowing less work for the doing of the work.

SCHOOL BOYS AND BIRDS.

The little 22 rifle in the hands of the boy is a serious menace to the life. Give a young lad one of these miniature rifles, and he is at once anxious to test it out on little something. If school boys were taught their dependence upon the work the birds to protect man's food supply from destructive insects, they would place a much greater value upon their feathered friends.

HON. T. A. CREBAR

Mr. Crebar has never been a politician. He identified himself with neither the Conservatives nor the Liberals. If he had any political opinions, they are those of the new radicalism of the west that are so firmly and popularly held among the farmers on the prairies.

Ontario can claim Mr. Crebar as a native son, though his family went to Manitoba as homesteaders where he was five years of age. He was born in Meteworth, June 17, 1876. His people settled in Russell, Man., and at the public school there and at Portage la Prairie, as well as the Portage Collegiate, he received his early education. He helped his father on the farm until he was 19, then taught school for five years, later attending Manitoba College. He took up farming and did elevator business in a small way at Russell until his opportunity came. He grasped it and in ten short years he has leaped to the front as one of the keenest business men in the whole country.

An Alberta Sweed

Sets Good Example

We Canadians and Americans are all so immersed in the war and its belongings successfully carried on, that we seldom stop to acquire what the neutral thinks about it. We can only about the Canadians and the Americans and the Americans being on one side and the Germans on the other, but we seldom trouble to place the neutral.

A little instance which tends to show where he neutrals stands came to light last week when a man who by birth a Sweed walked into the newspaper office at Vulcan and began to talk about the neutral, as he wanted to buy for himself and his wife. He was going to make her a present of the bonds when Christmas came around. Having obtained the information he went to the local secretary of the loan campaign and paid his money, with the request that the name should hand the local list. "You know," he said, "I am to do to fight but I want to show the people that if I can't fight I can do my share by backing the country with my money."

Here is a grand spirit, the spirit of a man who has some idea of what it means to the country which has furnished him with a home and a good living. People will know just where he stands; will you let them know where you stand by a similar action?

Sinn Feinners Insult

Some U. S. Soldiers

Sinn Fein is not only anti-British, but, if we are to judge by its outbreak in Cork last week, anti-American. Sailors from a United States ship in Cork harbor, who were strolling in the town, were insulted and attacked by some of Count Valera's henchmen. They were evidently inspired by the teachings of their leader to show their disgust for the Republic across the sea.

As between Britain and Germany, the Sinn Feinners much prefer the latter. Now that America is an ally of the old enemy, Irish hatred is divided between John Bull and Uncle Sam. Incidentally, of course, Kaiser Bill profits by the new antagonism.

A campaign to make New York City "dry" through women's vote is under way. Opponents of the liquor trade announced last Saturday that at New York churches, women qualified as voters by the ratification of the state suffrage amendment will sign petitions calling for a referendum on local option next April.

Conscription of Wealth Says the Union Gov't

Sir Robert Balfour, on the eve of his departure for Halifax to open his campaign, issued a second manifesto to the Canadian people setting forth his reasons for believing that they should give their support to the new administration. He expressed his conviction, he affirms the chief plank in the Union government platform announced by the prime minister on October 18, emphasizing more particularly what he conceives to be the duty of the government and the people in regard to the prosecution of the war and the solutions of the various problems arising out of the world struggle.

"In no time to meet the ever increasing expenditure for war purposes and also to insure that all shall share in common the sacrifice and sacrifice which will be necessitated by adequate taxation of war profits and increased taxation of income. There will be close inquiry into expenditure in order to save the treasury against purely local demands and to eliminate undertakings of purely political origin and object."

In dealing with the conscription of wealth the manifesto says:—

"In no time to meet the ever increasing expenditure for war purposes and also to insure that all shall share in common the sacrifice and sacrifice which will be necessitated by adequate taxation of war profits and increased taxation of income. There will be close inquiry into expenditure in order to save the treasury against purely local demands and to eliminate undertakings of purely political origin and object."

Rumored British

Leaders May Retire

An Associated Press cable from London says:—

"The speech made by Premier Lloyd George in Paris has made a stir in the local press, where his references to the allied 'incredible blunders' and other matters are printed under sensational headlines. Comment on the speech is hinted up with criticism of the new allied war council as announced by Chancellor Bonar Law. Some of the newspapers endorse the speech in the main or are non-committal. Others criticize adversely the new military plans and accuse the premier of wishing to take over the strategic direction of the allied forces. Rumors in the Sunday newspapers of the impending retirement of Field Marshal Haig, Gen. Robertson, chief of the general staff, caused commentators to intimate that the reports were set off intentionally by semi-official hints."

cies, Third street.

The study of music keeps the interest of young people in the home and home amusements. For right methods in piano teaching apply to Mrs.
H. W. Fred, First street northwest, Redcliff, Alberta.

Sunny Southern Alberta has certainly been living up to its title the past two weeks all right. Young folks playing tennis, women out in shirt waists and farmers plowing lit-tens fine for Nov. 15th.

The opening of the Victory Loan was fittingly announced to the people of Redcliff last Monday morning at 9 o'clock when all the factory whistles blew and the two fire hall sirens blew loud and long. Everybody in town heard the noise so that none can give as their excuse for not having a Victory
Bond that they did not know.

The W. A. of St. Ambrose church will hold their anniversary tea sale of work and dance in Reid's hall on Tuesday Dec. 4th. The sale of work will commence at 3 o'clock, during which tea and refreshments will be served.
In the evening there will be a dance, commencing at 9 o'clock. This is regular Red Cross day and will be convenient for the ladies to drop at the meeting. All are invited to be present.

tauca ticket at last Tuesday was 00968. There will be another drawing tonight.

Mrs. E. P. Argue was notified this week that her brother, York Bradley, was seriously wounded at the front.
Mr. Bradley visited her here last summer.

Pte. Lawrence Merrell, who enlisted from here is mentioned in this week's casualty list as wounded. Merrell is a son of a former C. P. R. station agent here.

BIRTH.
MILLARD—In Redcliff, on Tuesday,
Nov. 14th, 1917, to Mr. and Mrs. E.
Millard, a daughter.

The Two Ks are Still in The Fight

Gen. Knorrhoff has entered Petrograd, where the entire garrison, except the sailors, went over to his side, according to a Petrograd dispatch to the Social-Revolutionists, under Monday's date.

There was sanguinary fighting on the Kievsky Prospekt, says the dispatch and the Bolsheviks failed to hold even the workmen's quarter of the city.

The foreign ambassadors, the message reports, are now in communication with Gen. Korniloff.
Former French Ambassador is also reported to have returned to Petrograd and receiving hearty support by the soldiers.
